ANNUAL STAFF

FOREWORD

It is our hope in presenting this annual, "The Hornet's Nest" of 1949, to portray to the best of our ability, the spirit, traditions, and activities of Hooks High School.

Memories of our school days may grow dim, but, if in the years that lie ahead, this book enables us to relive once more our many pleasant experiences while students of H. H. S.; then, we, the annual staff of 1949, shall have accomplished our objective.

DEDICATION

It is with pleasure that we, the Annual Staff of 1949, dedicate this edition of "The Hornet" to Mrs. Zelda Austin, who has unselfishly relinquished her time, efforts, interest, and service to our school for the past 10 years.

Mrs. Austin has won our admiration through her guidance and leadership. It is to her that we go for counsel and assistance in our many school activities.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

HOOKS PUBLIC SCHOOLS

HOOKS, TEXAS

January 12, 1949

Dear Students:

I extend my hearty congratulations to the Seniors of 1949, together with the Annual Staff, the Faculty Sponsor, and all who have contributed toward the production of this splendid yearbook.

This record of our activities during 1948-49 will recall many pleasant memories to each of us in the years ahead.

The ideals of fair play, good sportsmanship and loyalty which have been so evident in Hooks High School will always be an inspiration to us.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely yours,

S. B. Culpepper

Through the play there is good comedy in two funny couples: O'Flynn, who is always making love to Anastasia, the cook, and the kid brother, Billy, constantly pursued by the lovesick "pest," Sally. The saucy kid sister, Beachy, is on Tom's side and she tips him off that Lewis has persuaded Phyllis to elope. Tom is right there in the nick of time with a hefty swing on the jaw that sends Lewis off to slumberland.

The play is all gorgeous fooling, with high spots of genuine romance and a plot full of action.

Announcement Followed by Ball Game

The pep squad, under the sponsorship of Miss Mable Harrison and Miss Hilda McCurry, met in the gym Tuesday, October 30 to discuss plans for the pep squad and to elect three cheer leaders. The custom of electing one from each class has been changed.

Any girl who wished to try out had an opportunity to do so. Those girls trying out for leaders were Kate Roberts, Dorothy Hutchison, Alzada Hudnall, Kathrine Farris, Betty Brown, Betty Huggins, Earnestine Eaton, Martha Gaulden, Nan Snyder, Norene Davis, Geraldine Smith and Ludelia Clemmer. All these girls showed that they had much ability and school spirit.

Following the tryouts a secret ballot was taken. Each member of the squad was given a sheet of paper on which to cast his secret ballot. Seniors Observe Sadie Hawkins' Day

If one had passed the administration building in East Hooks Courts Saturday night, November 13, at 7 p.m. and had seen ll of the "Daisy Mae's" and Li'l Abners," they would have hought that Al Capp's comic rip had come to life in true Dogpatch" style.

Miss Hilda McCurry and W. E. lha, sponsors, directed the hilly games. The seniors and guests gathered around the piano and sang "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" and other popular songs which drifted throughout the building. The weather did not permit the traditional race, but it did not hinder the serving of "kicka-poo-joy-juice," cookies and corn candy.

After the "Dais "Li'l Abners" parac room, led by nor Mr. Vilha, the be selected.

HE WAS A FRIEND

He made his friends by being one,
And on his friendship we relied;
In every deed that need be done
He made the Golden Rule his guide.
His friendly presence brought a cheer
That made the day seem wondrous fair;
His daily living so sincere
Made others love him everywhere;
He was a friend.

No task too great for him to do
And in the doing was a smile
That aided as he carried through
The deeds that were so well worthwhile
The brightness of his day is gone,
We see the setting of the sun;
If only we could carry on
And live a life like he has done!
He was a friend.

Just yonder on the star-kissed shore
He carries on in nobler way;
Though we can see his face no more,
Thanks for his friendship for a day.
If on his tomb I could indite
The epitaph I have in mind
One phrase is all that I could write
The truest words that I could find:
He was a friend.

TO OUR ADVERTISERS:

Please accept our sincere thanks for the ads you have contributed to our annual. Though we do not depend entirely upon ads to finance our book, we could not have produced one of as high quality without them. We, on behalf of the other students and members of the faculty, appreciate your cooperation with our school program.
